

Andrzej Ziemiński

Memorial
Symposium

November 2, 2008

Memorial Symposium for Andrzej Ziemiński

- Andrzej was born October 15, 1945 in Warsaw, Poland
- Married Daria in 1966
- Graduated from University of Warsaw, 1968
- Earned PhD from University of Warsaw, 1971
- Immigrated with Daria to the United States in 1980 and lived in College Park, Maryland.
- Moved to Bloomington in 1982.
- Joined the D0 experiment at Fermilab in 1985
- Joined the faculty at Indiana University in 1986
- Became a full professor, 1991
- Continued teaching until his death in Fall, 2008.

Teaching

- Andrzej taught 13 different courses to over 1100 undergraduates.
- About half of his teaching time was in the Physics of Sound and the introductory and advanced labs in Acoustics.
- Chip Stewart will talk about graduate student mentoring.

Symposium Agenda

- Welcome - Rick VanKooten- Chair
- Introduction - H. Ogren
- Early Years - Henry Lubatti –University of Washington
- Fermilab - Alex Dzierba
- Early D0 - Dave Hedin –Northern Illinois University
- D0 - Rick Jesick – Imperial College
- Mentoring - Chip Stewart - Boston University
- Passions of Andrzej Ziemiński from A to Z - Steve Gottlieb

Reception

- IU Memorial Union following the symposium.
- Speak to Steve Gottlieb if you would like to take part in the program.
- Andrzej Ziemiński Fellowship
- To help establish a physics graduate student fellowship fund in Andrzej's name, donations may be made to the IU Foundation (memo to Andrzej Ziemiński Fellowship) and sent c/o Dept. of Physics, Indiana University, Swain West 117, Bloomington, IN 47405.

Andrzej Ziemiński

